Council Considers Letter

Insurance Board Suggests Changes For Better Rates

City councilmen heard a letter Tuesday night from the state insurance commission calling for an additional night watchman and other improvements if Cameron's fire insurance rates were to stay the same.

A team of fire inspectors from the state commission has been checking fire standards in Cameron for the past two weeks.

The letter said that an additional water tower would ultimately be required in Cameron and that the old water tower near the county jail could not come down until a new one was erected.

Other sallient points of the letter were:

ONE—Three-way fire plugs must replace the present two-way plugs.

TWO—Drill reports must be kept of bi-weekly drills of Cameron firemen.

THREE—A reward for arson ordinance should be passed in Cameron.

The letter was accompanied by an outline of suggested waterline improvements in various parts of Cameron. The outline recommended several miles of new eight-inch pipe.

City officials noted that Cameron has been receiving an annual $18,000 debit on local fire insurance rates.

City Atty. Jack Prescott said the letter indicated additional fire insurance costs would result if recommendations were not followed.

In other action the council awarded a bid for a new city water department pickup to Schiller Motors on a low bid of $1469. Second low bid was $1499.34.

A copy of a letter of resignation from Dr. John B. Bryson, county health unit director was read. Dr. Bryson will take over the combined health units of Bell and Williamson counties January 1.

The council also reinstated Judge Roy Baskin's monthly salary of $100 that was cut about three months ago.

Also read was a new police ordinance that will empower city authorities to arrest suspicious persons loitering in the city.

The council also noted that city parking meters will be enforced on Saturdays after January 1. They have allowed free downtown parking in recent months.

The letter from the insurance commission also noted that substandard building must be discontinued in Cameron if insurance rates are to be kept the same.

The council asked that City Secretary Wayne Wieser issue placards for all construction projects showing that city building permits have been obtained.

Hundreds of items already have been contributed by business concerns and individuals.

Appreciate Donations

"We are pleased with the cooperation of Cameron people in helping this year," Humble said, "but we could use more toys right away."

Contributions have been brought in by school students, Schattle said.

Santa Pal Barrels have been out for about five weeks and many toys have been placed in them for the project.

Children to receive Santa Pal toys are being selected by a screening committee for actual need, officials pointed out.

The group represents the state insurance commissioner's office, officials said. It is the first inspection of Cameron for fire insurance data in about 10 years.

They will complete the inspections about January 1.

Murder Charge Filed After 4 Fire Deaths

A 50-year-old Rockdale Negro is in Milam County Jail today pending disposition of charges of murder with malice in the death of four Negro children who burned to death last Thursday.

County Attorney Robert Nelson told The Herald that Homer Ward, 50, General Delivery, Rockdale, Negro, faces charges of murder with malice following the death of four children of Mrs. Mattie Maye Robinson, Rockdale Negro.

The children were found burned to death in Mrs. Robinson's home in Rockdale after a fire destroyed the structure, Nelson said.

Dead are: Velma Jean Collins, 4; Gwendolyn Deanne Collins, 3; Hal Creig Sheppard, 18 months; and Douglas Bernard Sheppard, 7 months.

Officials said Ward was believed to be taking care of the children Thursday night while Mrs. Robinson was visiting in Dimebox.

Nelson said Ward told officials of lighting a wood fire in a stove in the house and leaving. Nelson said Ward returned to the house about 9 p.m. to find it ablaze.

Ward gave two stories concerning the incident, Nelson said. The county attorney said the second Ward statement admitted Ward started the fire in the stove.

Nelson said there were no witnesses to the incident.

County officials are continuing investigation of the case while Ward is being held without bail in county jail.

He was bound over to the district grand jury after charges of murder with malice were filed Friday in Judge Leonard Adams' Rockdale JP court.

Nelson said the case would probably come before the January session of the Milam District Grand Jury.

Fund Board Calls For Renewed Drive

Seventeen members of the North Milam United Fund Monday night voted for renewed efforts to complete the 1957 drive for $11,300.

Fund Treasurer Hilliard Thomas today reported that $5,600 had been contributed thus far, about half of the goal.

Fund Raising Chairman Robert Nelson asked that any businesses or individuals not contacted may call 622 or 123 for a United Fund worker.

Wiley Loughmiller, president of the North United Fund, emphasized that pledges payable quarterly is the easiest method to contribute to seven worthy agencies.

The participating agencies are: Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Heart Fund, Library Fund, Red Cross and various local charities.

"You don't have to pay your contribution all at once," Loughmiller said. "Just pledge an amount that can be paid monthly or quarterly to the Fund," he said.

The board voted to engage Mrs. Loretta Brock to set up a systematic file on contributions and doners.

Board members called for renewed efforts of all campaign workers and community drive chairmen to complete their contacts.

Board Hires Coach, Considers Baseball

The Cameron city school board Thursday night considered reinstituting baseball in the Yoe High School athletic program and hired a new basketball coach.

Board members tabled for further discussion a move to put baseball back into the high school athletic program.

School officials estimated it would take about $500 to start the spring sport again.

Hires Coacr

The board also hired W. M. Krueger, 23, as basketball coach, succeeding Jim Speer who last week was named athletic director and head grid mentor.

In other action the board voted that the athletic fund pay back $1,000 of $3,833.32 borrowed from local maintenance fund. Also moved was repayment of $2,600 from the building fund to the local maintenance fund.

Hard Work Does Job Anywhere, Mentor Says

Abe Martin, grid mentor at Texas Christian University, Tuesday night told a near capacity football banquet crowd that education is as important to a college athlete as the game he plays.

Introduced by M. C. Charlie Burke, Martin drew from a wealth of personal experience to tell Yoe High School gridders, their parents and friends that hard work produces results on the gridiron and in one's chosen field.

"You have to have knowledge, ability, desire, dependability and loyalty to be a good football player. And you must have the same qualities to be a good worker," he said.

300 Attend

About 300 attended the annual football banquet held at Simon-George Hall. It is sponsored annually by the Cameron Quarterback Club.

"You hear a lot about Southwest Conference football," Martin continued. "But all the schools are good schools and can give you the education you need."

"It doesn't matter where you go to school," he said. "Wrerever you go, you must work hard if you want to play football or get an education."

Martin went on to tell the group that he tells his players that football is equal in importance to education but not more important.

Others Introduced

Earlier in tre program, Burke introduced Calvin Markham, Quarterback Club president, Coach Leo Jackson and Coaches Jim Speer, Murphy Webster, W. M. Krueger, Bill Michalka and their wives.

Coach Jackson announced the 1957 YHS football lettermen.

Experts Predicting 205 Holiday Deaths

The violent deaths of 205 persons in Texas during the 12-day Christmas-New Years holiday period was predicted today by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas DPS, announced the prediction of all forms of violent deaths compiled by N. K. Woerner, manager of Statistical Services.

The estimate includes 113 motor cides, 48 suicides and homicides and 44 other accidental deaths for the 12-day period extending from 12:01 a.m. Dec. 21 through 11:59 p.m. Jan. 1.

During the same 12-day period last year 108 persons were killed in 89 fatal traffic accidents, seven below the 115 predicted motorcides.

All-Out Effort

The state police director said the same "all-out" effort of traffic law enforcement employed in holding down last year's count of traffic dead will be used again during the forthcoming holiday.

"Our estimated 115 motorcides (traffic deaths) for last year could have been exceeded except for the cooperative around-the-clock effort of all law enforcement agencies throughout the state. Traffic law enforcement will again be strengthened in an effort to prevent traffic accidents and accident prone situations.

"From all indications, the two week-ends during the forth-coming holiday period will be high accident periods. With Christmas and New Years falling on Wednesday, both days plus the day preceding each will also be high accident days. This means that we will have the equivalent of four week-ends within the 12-day period," says Garrison.

As a means of cutting down the number of traffic accidents and motorcides Garrison urged motorists to employ the following driving suggestions: leave in time to get where you are going without speeding; reduce speed according to weather, road, traffic and daylight conditions; pay strict attention to driving and do not let passengers distract your attention from the road; obey traffic regulations and traffic signs; always be courteous to other drivers and to pedestrians, especially at Christmas time.

Final Mail Rush Hits Postoffice, Hays Points Out

"The time has passed to talk about 'mailing early for Christmas'," Postmaster John R. Hays said today, "but you can still help us avoid a tremendous last minute pile-up of Christmas mail if you'll send all your gift packages and Christmas cards right now!"

To the inevitable last minute mailers he suggests use of air mail for every Christmas card or gift going to distant places out-of-town.

He points out that even a few hours delay at this critical time may mean disappointment for your friends and loved ones on Christmas Day.

The Postmaster says that he expects the 1957 Christmas mails will break all records, and that the mail load will undoubtedly hit its peak within the next few days.

The flood of outgoing Christmas cards and gifts is being matched by a like torrent of incoming mail that is becoming greater every day.

Postal employees are digging in harder than ever, and for your convenience, the Cameron Post Office will remain open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., including Saturday.

There's still time for local deliveries, but all Christmas cards should be sent by First Class mail. Be sure to include return address on all Christmas card envelopes and package labels, he says.

Hays expressed his thanks for the fine cooperation from the public so far, and asks your continued help so that all gift packages and Christmas cards can be delivered before Christmas Eve.

Mud Hen Makes Tasty Dish

By L. A. Wilke

Ever try eating coot? That's the mud hen that infests Texas lakes and streams and annoys hunters. They are legal, just like ducks, and at the same season.

Great rafts of coot work along the shore lines, and sometimes will get out into deep water. In some instances they act as decoys. Ducks will light among them. Try to slip in among these coot in a boat, however, and they'll take wing, just skimming the top of the water, half flying, half paddling with their web feet.

Now comes the great Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation with a book of recipes for cooking coot (and duck). The recipes were tried and teste dby the Iowa State College.

"The American coot," the report says, "is met with mixed emotions as a prospect for a game dinner. In the south, the coot is a delicacy in many areas; whereas, in the middle west only a few hunters appreciate the table qualities of the coot a stigma of local junting traditions.

"Tests at Iowa State College by participants unaware as to whether the meat was duck or coot revealed the coot to be on a par with wild duck. Therefore, with the American coot comprising a substantial proportion of our waterfowl population, and realizing the table qualities of this bird, this valuable wildlife resource should be utilized more fully."

There it is, hunters. Bag a few of these coots. Cook 'em like ducks and the family will like 'em.

Gulf Is Tempting Now

If you want a complete change of your fishing habits, and live inland, why not try a trip to the coast this year after red fish? For the past few weeks the water has been a little murky due to recent flood waters going down the streams into the gulf. By now, however, the water should be in excellent condition from Port Arthur to Port Isabel.

In addition to red fish, you also can catch trout, drum and sheepshead. Of course you also can take the off-shore trips on the party boats.

Mid-December is a wonderful time of the year to make a coastal trip. You also can mix a little duck and goose shooting with your fishing. In fact, you can take a rod to your duck blind and after you've filled your limit on ducks, you can try your luck fishing. And you don't have to have special equipment. Your bass rod will do the job fine.

Be sure to rinse it with fresh water, however, upon your return to land. A good way is to set the rod, reel and other exposed equipment in the bath tub and turn on the shower for a few minutes.

Help Beautify Texas

We know a man who plans to spread a little beauty along creek banks this year. He has bought a quantity of sweetpea and larkspur seed and already is scattering them in areas where he thinks they might have sufficient irrigation and protection to flourish next spring.

There are places in Texas, particularly in North and East Texas, where millions of poppies come up each year as volunteers. Somewhere along the line someone dropped a few seeds and they grew well.

Think how beautiful the countryside would be if everyone would toss out flower seeds instead of beverage bottles and beer cans to clutter up the stream banks and right of ways along the highways.

It's an idea you might want to try.

Don't forget to save your deer hide this year for use of disabled veterans. Turn it over to your game warden or sporting goods store.

Through Sportsmen's Club of Texas, in Austin, these hides will be taken to Denver for distribution to the hospitals.

Lankford Honored On All-Star Lineup

SAN MARCOS—Eddy Lankford, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Caperton, Cameron, has been named honorable mention halfback on the 1957 edition of the all-Lone Star Conference football squad.

A junior at Southwest Texas State Teachers College, the 160-pound speedster has another year of eligibility.

Lankford was the third leading ground-gainer for the Bobcats this fall, rambling for 340 yards on 65 carries. His average of 5.23 yards per carry was tops on the team.

Lankford's great speed is attested by the fact that, despite running many end runs, he lost only 7 yards all season. His rushing total was also good for fourth in total offense.

In addition, Lankford returned 4 punts for 89 yards and 7 kickoffs for 214, a total of 11 kick returns for 303 yards, tops on the team by a wide margin. He caught 6 passes for 69 yards, scored 18 points on three touchdowns, intercepted a pass, and recovered a fumble.

Lankford's play helped carry an inexperienced team to fifth place in the 8-team LSC and a record of four victories and six losses on the season.

The SWTSC halfback is married to the former Carolynn Gless of Edna.

Workers Clearing Milam Cotton Crop As Weather Clears

Dry weather allowed farmers back in their fields to get out some cotton and complete winter plowing in some Milam areas, according to J. D. Moore, county agent.

But the near 20-degree weather set back growth slightly in some oats, though no appreciable damage was reported by county farmers.

Moore said that all corn, grain sorghum, hay and feed crops in Milam County have been harvested.

The county agent said another week of fair weather is needed to complete the cotton harvest. Some progress was made last week during sunny, warm weather.

On the livestock scene, conditions continue good. Officials report the ushal winter shrinkage on some cattle due to planned winter pastures.

Peanuts too needed a boost of fair weather for satisfactory completion, he concluded.

Christmas In Cameron

"T'was the week before Christmas, and all through Cameron, many a creature was stirring . . ."

Cameron is a busy city these days with people completing their last-minute shopping only three shopping days before Christmas.

Milam County has endured as all Central Texas, an unprecendented year of rains, even up to Christmas and the first of the year. But from observing the crowds that have gathered here for holiday shopping, it would appear that things are less difficult than they seem.

Many farmers have faced heavy losses due to rains. But, because of an enduring "never say die" spirit, they are planning as much as possible Christmas as usual.

It is fitting that spirit should prevail during the Yule season. After all, the true spirit of Christmas is one of hope, not pessimism.

Milam Countians can count Christmas as much a period of thanksgiving as at Thanksgiving itself. Sometimes the material aspects of Christmas are substituted for Christmas truth, but in reality all Milam Countians know that exchange of presents means less than the thought of giving and sharing.

It happens that Milam Countians and all people in the United States are blessed with more material blessings than any other nation. It is human, then, to overemphasize the gift rather than the giving.

Thus, crowds gather in Cameron to buy for Christmas. What they really are doing is giving in the truest sense of the word.

For after the gifts are opened and Christmas dinner is over, the greatest joy for all will be the warm glow that follows.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Sage Seeks International Bank To Lend Money On World Terms

By J. A.

Dear editar:

Some people still think us folks in the country are narrow-gauged, can't see beyond our own fences, and I was reading in a copy of a newspaper which turned up in my mail box as a sample copy where an international expert in Washington said if the United States is going to survive everybody has got to think in international terms.

Well, in the same paper I read the following article from London.

"Britain will postpone its annual payment of $175,000,000 on its United States postwar loan, due in December, because of its financial straits."

The article went on to say that this will be agreeable with Washington, as the loan payments are handled on what is called a "simplified procedure" with the understanding that England can defer payments whenever its financial position requires it.

Now if this is what that expert means by thinking in international terms, just mark me down as an internationalist.

If I can find any bank or other lending institution in any part of this state willing to make me a loan on international terms, I'll be at the door waiting for it to open the first thing in the morning.

But the trouble with most loans is that they're made on a narrow, sectional basis, and when the money is due, it has to be paid.

Under the international system, though, you just have to meet one standard when you're borrowing: do you need the money? Then when the time comes to pay it back, the same standard applies: are you able?

It's pretty obvious that the international banking business has come to recognize one of the fundamental truths generally overlooked by regular banks, which is with most folks, they need the money worse when the time comes to pay it back than they did when they borrowed it.

If I could find a bank that'd send out its note-due notices to read "This note is due if you're able to pay it," I'd swing all my business to it, and I have an idea a lot of other people would too.

I don't know how long such a bank could stay in business, but it'd sure be busy while it lasted.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Today's Text: Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. —Verse 3.

Lord, make us willing and determined to give our very best to thee.

Capitol Report

Austin Citing Yule Season With Fetes

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—Christmas cheer abounds at the State Capitol.

We mean the old-fashioned kind of warm greetings and sunny dispositions, mixed with just plain fun.

This is the week when state employees, from the Governor on down, hold their annual Christmas program. School choral groups in Austin share in the festivities with carol singing. And the Governor brings the traditional Yuletide message.

Activities center around a mammoth Christmas tree. It stands in the rotunda and stretches up beyond the second-floor railing.

Each year at this time committees from the Texas Public Employees Association divide the responsibility of getting a sturdy, 25-foot cedar and decking it with tinsel and 432 multi-colored lights. It's a sight for sightseers, as well as young and old among the Capitol's regular inhabitants. And it always provokes the question "Wrere did they get it?"

Out-of-state visitors usually insist that it must have been imported from another state. This the capitol receptionist firmly denies. When pressed for facts she says, "The Governor came in from East Texas one day, wearing it as a boutonniere."

Home For Christmas

Capitol employees will be leaving for home, Saturday, for the holiday vacation, which begins Monday. They are due back on the job Thursday morning.

Texas statutes now prohibit a state office from being closed more than two working days in succession. This is interpreted to mean that offices can be closed Christmas day, plus two more. However, some workers plan to take more time "on their own". Therefore skeleton forces will man many departments during most of the period between now and Jan. 3.

"Give The Gift Of Life"

That's the slogan for Governor Daniel's Christmas Safety Campaign.

"Christmas holiday traffic took 108 lives on Texas highways in 1956," the Governor pointed out. "This year the Department of Public Safety estimates the toll will reach 113. But this useless and tragic slaughter can be prevented.

"I plead with every Texas to assume normal, adult responsibility for driving his car with utmost care. It's the very least any of us can do. And the greatest thing we can do is 'Give the Gift of Life for Christmas.'"

Governor Hits "Mossbacks"

It's the people who want the state government to "sit on its hands" who pave the way for federal centralization, says Governor Daniel.

In a speech before an Austin civic club, the Governor hit at the "mossback philosophy" of those who want to "preserve the status quo" in state government, "especially in regard to spending money." They "do more to undermine the cause of local self-government than the most vocal advocates of federal power," he declared.

Daniel mentioned school needs specifically. He said the state, not the federal government, should step in to help districts that can't pay for needed buildings.

Concern has been expressed by some over the complete draining of the State Treasury to enact the Governor's 52-point legislative program. Various estimates have been made as to how much additional tax money will be needed to make up deficits in 1959.

Daniel's apparent reply: "State's rights and local self-government cannot be honestly defended unless we are willing to accept the responsibilities which go with these rights."

Manford Appointed

Former House Speaker Durwood Manford of Smiley steps into the controversial State Water Board chairmanship on Jan. 1. He will replace retiring board member H. A. Beckwith and will take over as chairman from R. M. Dixon.

Governor Daniel said he felt that his appointment of Manford will bring harmony to the board. In past months the Water Board has been subject to inner dissension as well as considerable outside criticism.

Manford is a former chairman of the State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools and was named just a few weeks ago to the State Industrial Accident Board. He will leave that position which will be filled by Judge Ned Price of Tyler.

Water Research Begins

State Water Board says it is moving ahead "as fast as possible" on a water development program for Texas.

Legislation passed this fall authorizes the department to make a study and present findings to the next regular legislative session. Report is to cover where and what Texas' water resources are, with recommendations on how they may best be used to meet the needs of various sections.

Information-seeking meetings have been scheduled with consulting engineers and with farmers and ranchers, according to present Board Chairman R. M. Dixon. A first assistant planning engineer, Isom Hale of Dallas, has been hired.

Some $200,000 of the engineering work will be contracted, said Dixon. Low salaries make it difficult to attract engineers to the staff, he added.

When he stops being cute

This is his very first New Year. He's celebrating it in his own talented fashion, just being cute.

Last year thousands of boys and girls were arrested as juvenile delinquents. They had all been cute—once!

But did they have the priceless example of active Christian parents? Were they given moral and spiritual training in the Church? Did they grow up in a Christian atmosphere?

This young fellow can't be absolutely sure that the New Year is worth celebrating. His future is in the hands of his parents. But he's smiling because of his confidence in them.

During this New Year their faith in God, and the sincerity of their relationship with the Church will begin to determine just what their son is going to be when he stops being cute.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

YOUNG IDEAS from Polly Ponds
Q: "Would cutting make my eyelashes grow in longer?"
A: Definitely no! If anything, your lashes would be stubbier than ever after trying this foolish and dangerous trick.
Your eyelashes will look longer if you encourage them to curl up by brushing them with a tiny mascara brush every day. You can also keep the ends from breaking off by tipping them with cold cream.
On special occasions apply mascara to the tips of your lashes, making sure the cosmetic is barely coating the hairs and not caking or pulling them into hard unnatural points. If eye make-up is to be worn successfully, nobody but you should know you have it on.

Navy Will Offer Science Program To Enlisted Men

500 Officers trained in field of science will be added to ranks of the Navy and Marine Corps annually under a new educational program announced today by Secretary of Navy Thomas S. Gates.

Beginning with the school year 1958-1959, that number of enlisted men will be enrolled in civilian institutions of higher learning in four year courses leading to a degree of B.S and to commissions in the Navy.

Emphasis in their studies will be placed on math and physical science. During summer vacation periods students will be assigned to Navy laboratories and other scientific establishments to study application of the sciences.

The basis of selection of enlisted men for this higher study will be intelligence and aptitude. Those considered qualified who lack sufficient high school credit for college entrance will be given opportunity to earn those credits.

State Sets $53,375 For County Roads

The Texas Highway Department will spend $53,375.00 for improvements on highways in Milam County during 1958, D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, has announced.

This is in addition to the regular construction and maintenance program.

The State Highway Commission has approved this papropriation to improve already existing highways in this county, and there will be little or no additional right of way requirements, Greer said.

At the December meeting of the Highway Commission, $20 million was allotted to 144 Texas counties for road improvements during 1958. The $20 million is being spent for shoulder widening, seal coat jobs, additional surfacing, and for widening of structures and highways in these counties.

"We should have this program moving by spring," Greer said. "We believe the money will go a long way toward bringing these highways up to date."

Projects for the county are:

U. S. 77, Recondition and seal shoulders and additional surface, 2.0 miles between Cameron and State Highway 36.

U. S. 79, Recondition base and seal coat, 2.7 miles between 1.5 miles west of Milano and State 36 east of Milano.

U. S. 79, Recondition base and additional surface 2.8 miles between 3.5 miles east of Milano and the Brazos River.

Cattle Lice Cause Damage In Winter; Control Available

COLLEGE STATION—Cattle lice usually cause their worst damage during the winter when the cow's long, thick hair provides them with lots of protection. These pests rob animals of the ability to produce milk and meat efficiently and prevent normal growth.

But farmers don't rave to take this loss sitting down, says F. M. Fuller, extension enotmologist. Something can be done about it.

Lice may be controlled on beef cattle and non-lactating dairy animals by applying 0.5 percent toxaphene, 0.5 percent methoxychlor, .03 percent lindane, or .006 percent rotenone as either a spray or dip, or with .025 percent pyrethrin as a spray, points out Fuller. However, he warns, toxaphene should not be applied within four weeks of slaughter.

Lice on lactating dairy cattle may be controlled with 0.1 percent pyrethrin plus 1 percent piperonyl butoxide or with .006 percent rotenone. Either compound may be applied as a spray or dip.

The cattle should be checked two weeks after spraying, advises the entomologist. A repeat spraying may be necessary to kill any lice that may have escaped the first application or which have hatched since that time.

Course To View Texas' Future In Irrigation

COLLEGE STATION—What does the future hold for irrigation in the state of Texas?

This question and various answers to it will be the theme on which the annual Irrigation Short Course is opened at Texas A&M College January 16-17.

One wet year doesn't make irrigation unnecessary, and right now, while the pressure for more water is lessened is the best time for everyone concerned with irrigation to make a calm study of the situation, says Prof. F. R. Jones, head of the college's Department of Agricultural Engineering.

Following a morning of discussion about the future potential of irrigation, the conferees will then take up, in order, the various aspects and problems involved in cotton irrigation, irrigation problems generally, and management with irrigation, to round out the two-day conference.

Subject titles range from "Irrigation Potentials in Texas" through "Cotton Varieties Suited to Irrigation" to "Soil Mismanagement Under Irrigation."

The short course is sponsored by the System's Department of Agricultural Engineering, and is open to any person interested in irrigation, Professor Jones says. Sessions will be held in the Memorial Student Center.

The new 1957 Farmers Income Tax Guides are available from the County Extension office upon request by mail, telephone or in person.

This guide gives a detailed explanation with examples on filing of 1957 income taxes and is prepared for the purpose of helping farmers with their income tax problems.

Points covered in the publication include income to be reported, business expenses, farm inventories, depreciations, capital gains, losses, casualty losses and theft, soil and water conservation, self employment tax, and other deductions and exemptions.

Sweet Potato Crop

The Agriculture Committee of the Rockdale Chamber of Commerce in a recent meeting favored a move to get the potato weevil quarantine lifted in Milam county in order to open better market outlets for sweet potatoes grown locally.

Milam county is in the northern boundary of the quarantine area that follows a line from Sabine County on the East along the northern boundaries of Tyler, Polk, Walker, Brazos, Milam, Falls, Bell, Coryell, Lampasas, Burnet, Blanco, Kendall, Kerr and Real counties.

All counties to the south of this line are in a potato weevil quarantine area.

Local grown potatoes cannot be shipped into the areas north of the above mentioned counties. The southern Texas counties within the quarantine area are the only Texas counties Louisiana weevil area sweet potatoes may be shipped.

Steps to be taken in this effort are for leaders in the Rockdale, Milano, Hanover, Marlow and Gause communities to decide some action should be taken. A meeting of this group should be called with a representative from the State Department of Agriculture, Austin, present.

With favorable conditions, producers should make one hundred dollars per acre from an acre of sweet potatoes. Of course, under irrigation and proper fertilization, much higher yields and profits can be made.

Soil Conservation District Finds Coastal Bermuda Best Area Grass

Coastal Bermuda continues to prove itself as one of the best adapted grasses introduced to this area.

It is one of the best conservation grasses known because of the way in which it grows with runners forming a solid turf and upright growth producing abundant forage. Field plantings have been made and grazed in all types of soil throughout the county.

Lawrence McClarren, who was one of the pioneers in planting this grass in Milam county, has Coastal Bermuda on sandy land and clay bottomland. He reports almost miraculous production from it, and is planting a little more each year.

Edwin Brod, who stock farms about 400 acres just south of Cameron, is another strong promoter of Coastal Bermudagrass. He has developed his own system of planting, and plans to cover his entire place with this grass. His farm consists of soils of nearly every type found in the county and here again the grass is outstanding.

Feaster Scarborough and Dutch Baskin both have Coastal Bermuda on their bottomland which has been flooded to excess this year. The grass did an excellent job of erosion control, and was quick to recover after the floods.

We are in an area that is well adapted to this grass, and it is well proven on all soil types in both wet and dry years. All growers report that Coastal Bermuda is a grass that will produce according to the management and treatment received.

It needs proper fertilization, proper water management and, last but not least, proper grazing management. Returns to be expected can be measured by the treatment given.

SCS technicians at Cameron are expecting heavy plantings of Coastal Bermudagrass from now until June. Equipment, capital, technical assistance and a local supply of grass springs will be available to farmers who are interested.

Dillon Wins All-State Honor As Green Makes Third Team

Guy Dillon

Ray Green

Cameron's Guy Dillon reached the pinnacle of AAA high school gridiron success this week after being named to the Waco News-Tribune's first string All-State team.

He joined LaVega's Bobby Biehunko who was outstanding this season at center.

It was the final of many grid honors to come to Dillon and Ray Green who was named to the Waco newspaper's third-string All-State lineup.

Follows Other Honors

Both Dillon and Green had been named to the mythical all Cen-Tex honor squad, gaining berths with 20 other top schoolboy gridders from all classes of football competition.

Dillon was honorable mention All-State last year.

Then Dillon had been named outstanding back and most valuable player for 9AAA conference a few weeks ago. Green also made first string all-conference along with Tackle Gene Hillman.

Second-team all-conference honors also went to Bobby Elliott, Warren Rinn and Jimmy Smalley.

Dillon joined vaunted Calvin Janner, Brenham speedster, in the all-AAA backfield. Both are fullbacks.

The Cameron senior fullback displayed outstanding ability at his line-backer post and gained an average of 6.7 yards per try in 877 total yards offense.

Outstanding On Defense

But experts touted the 195-pound Dillon most for his powerful defensive play.

Biehunko, who played a fine game against Cameron when LaVega lost 28-13 here in November, was the only other 9AAA player named to the honor roll.

Nederland placed three men on the all-state team selected by the Waco paper while Sweetwater placed two and all others one.

None of the players had been named to the all-state AAA lineup last year, the paper noted.
